

ALL'S RIGHT WITH THE FLIGHT

(A poem beginning with an iambic pentameter that has no iambs)

Richard Moore

Self-knowledge for air passengers? Don't frown.

Sunlight today so grand,

as we come in to land,

look, in our shadow: our nose wheel is down.

Our way shall be the fun way,

bouncing down the runway.

“All's Right with the Flight” © 2004 by Richard Moore