

AUTUMN

Francine L. Trevens

Oh welcome, welcome Autumn!
Champ over summer's ennui
Bearer of blissful breezes
Urging leaves to desert their tree

Oh, invigorating Autumn
Colorful and cool
Revvng up dulled energies
Sending minds to school.

Herald of pristine Winter
Often you're overblown
Bold, brash and beautiful
And lushly overgrown.

You send the senses reeling,
You urge one's spirit to dare
You set folks emulating
Your devil may care air!
