

FINAL CHAPTER

Guy Belleranti

He made the explosive by the book
During one week in July.
He read through each chapter one more time,
Then hit the sack with a sigh.
Morning came—time to test his device!
He didn't realize 'til too late
The book had been missing Chapter Ten—
The one saying, "Run, don't wait."
