

IF I WERE A BELL

Thomas Ország-Land

*In memoriam
József Romhányi*

If I were a bell,
I would peal as I pined for you.
If I were the sun,
I would swell as I shined for you.

If I were the wind,
I would feel
and caress and undress you.

If I were the rain,
I'd rejoice as I moistened you.
If I were a stallion,
I'd neigh as I carried you...

And if I were insane,
I might—Nay!—
even have married you.

“If I Were a Bell” © 2007 by Thomas Ország-Land

Contemporary Rhyme Vol. 4 No. 1 2007