

TECHNO-GRIDLOCK

Stephanie L. Kemp

Virtual reality
Nothing is real People forgot how to talk and to feel
Fax me your problems
I'll e-mail replies
I'll pencil your call in if I've got the time Leave me a voice mail I'll get back to you,
or maybe you'll page me if you can't get through Put in your number and then press the pound, but I can't call you back...
My cell phone is down
